Call for abstracts 2017

Abstract Submission is open! The closing date for submission is 9th February 2017. We will send regular reminders.

Membership renewal

Membership costs remains at:

12 months from 1st October £5.00

24 months from 1st October £10.00

10 years £50.00

You can renew your membership online, and will receive a reminder if your membership has lapsed.

Minimum standards in continence care

This document can be found on the UKCS website.

<http://www.ukcs.uk.net/newsletter-downloads/downloads/policy-documents-downloads/>

The document can be downloaded. Please encourage your colleagues to use this as a resource to develop services and training programmes.

New Logo competition

In the summer newsletter we announced a competition to design a new logo for UKCS. So far there have been no logo's submitted to us. What we are asking for is your basic idea, a design company can produce the final touches. The prize will be free registration to a UKCS annual meeting.

Please submit your ideas to the secretariat: ukcs@indexcommunications.com

New Officers

This is a reminder that there are vacancies for officers on the UKCS committee:

Secretary as Steph Knight is stepping down
Vice-Chair as Roland Morley will take on the role of Chair when Carmel Ramage completes her term of office at the 2017 AGM in Newcastle.
There is also a vacancy for a nursing representative.

Please send any nominations to ukcs@indexcommunications.com
A form is attached for this purpose

I hope that you are all prepared for Christmas and the New Year. The dark winter nights may allow more time for preparing your abstracts for Newcastle in March 2017!

Kind regards

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'C Ramage', enclosed within a thin black rectangular border.

Stephanie Knight
Secretary

Carmel Ramage
Chair
